

Playing SMTV on TV

Note: You must have the internet connection to play SMTV Live

Instructions:

1. If you have a smart TV:
 - Go to YouTube, if you don't see YouTube then you can download it FREE.
 - In YouTube, search for Supreme Master TV, choose Live Stream
 - Click PLAY and you're done.
2. If you don't have a smart TV:
 - Buy an Amazon FireTV Stick, connect it to an HDMI port on the TV.
 - Follow the instructions in the FireTV Stick menu to set it up and connect it to your internet
 - In the Amazon FireTV Stick, go to YouTube, if you don't see YouTube then you can download it FREE.
 - In YouTube, search for Supreme Master TV, choose Live Stream
 - Click PLAY and you're done.
3. If you don't have a FireTV Stick (cost $40 at any electronic store) and don't want to buy one:
 - Use your laptop as a media player
 - Connect your laptop's HDMI port to the TV's HDMI port
 - If your laptop doesn't have an HDMI port, purchase a USB to HDMI adapter.
 - In your laptop, go to YouTube, search for Supreme Master TV, choose Live Stream
 - Click PLAY and you're done.
 - Note: Using the laptop option will need a larger space to place your laptop closed to your TV.
